I found Kroth, Adizah and Caporn! dillweed!
Seems they might not have done as much Told me as Evans told me they did...

Almost sniffed out by a white? Dragon?
Never been so scared.

I must be a bit smelly? Did it follow Mrs? I hope Mr-Dan's because of me,

White dragon still patrols the area we left. The Beast mentioned the Dragonborn's name. Is it's master after her? She must be important. Any Thavn in the Empire's side is an ally of mine.

Dear diary:

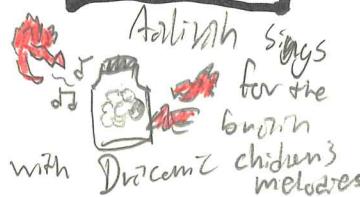

Pretty shaken since Oakwood. How that thing hid from the minds of the inhabitants... Terrifies me to think what else hides... I'm still doubtful if it had anything to do with dragonburns, but Aaliyah seems very convinced. She also talks to a brain, says it's like her. Perhaps... we shouldn't destroy it, although it's broken, and a burden. Can something be restored from such torture?...

I've heard Aalirah asking of the... thing... in the Jar lately. It's unsettling to see her connect more with it than any other... living thing.

Simmons seemed to have been traumatised by the knowledge of the Dragonborn, but he is also one of the few I've ever met that takes the Dragonborn Threat as seriously as one should. I hope He'll manage where he is...

To-Call notes:

- It worked? I had only the faintest of hopes that Jenkins still lingered around the Barrel. Actually ... I mostly hoped I wouldn't have to meet any of the claws... But now I got us a solid lead or so I hope, All-Hammer be damaged. Especially after I let Medellin do that stunt, for her "Immortal soul", I'm happy something I did got us on the right path. Journal entry [ 11.04 - 05.05.2023 Intermission ]

Cowards and Selfish Pricks? Today Carnielle found it reasonable to spend time discussing an escape strategy from Rem? Escape? Both dragonborn found this extremely fitting, of course. Always conniving and utilitarian. What about the people from Rem? IN Rem? I... we can't just abandon them? After Dwulinstad... after all this traveling, and we'll just leave? I can't just keep leaving places and people for them to fall apart. For all I know, my ailment will get the better of me before that happens, and then... then I could at least use the Dragonborn's own Devilry against them?

Post - Resurrection

At first I could not believe them...

I had Died?? But I feel it... I'm heavy and cold... and tired.

But that fight went bad... Real Bad. we were unprepared, and I Rushed in with little Plan other than to Protect K. and C... And I couldn't even do that Right... I barely got any use out of my abilities... I need to be smarter... It's like Amaliyah Said... I'm an important asset now, a Soldier. I can be useful again, I just have to make sure we won't need to Revive anyone again... I still don't get how Krom did not use the Potion on Aud first...
